 - What Messages do I want to convey?
 - Who are my Target Customers?

Why is this More Important in DM
than in Traditional Marketing?

We Start With Marketing

One View of Digital Marketing – Just Another Channel

NO, It's NOT The Same - FB Adverts

Your people are here

Two billion people use Facebook every month. With our powerful audience selection tools, you can target the people who are right for your business. Using what you know about your customers—like demographics, interests and behaviors—you can connect with people similar to them. There are three options for choosing your audience on Facebook.

Core Audiences

Select your audience manually based on characteristics like age and location.

Custom Audiences

Upload your contact list to connect with your customers on Facebook.

Lookalike Audiences

Use your customer information to find people similar to them on Facebook.

FB – Core Audiences

Demographics

Find people based on traits like age, gender, relationship status, education, workplace, job titles and more.

Location

Reach people in areas where you want to do business. You can even create a radius around a store to help create more walk-ins.

Interests

Find people based on what they're into, like hobbies, favorite entertainment and more.

Behaviors

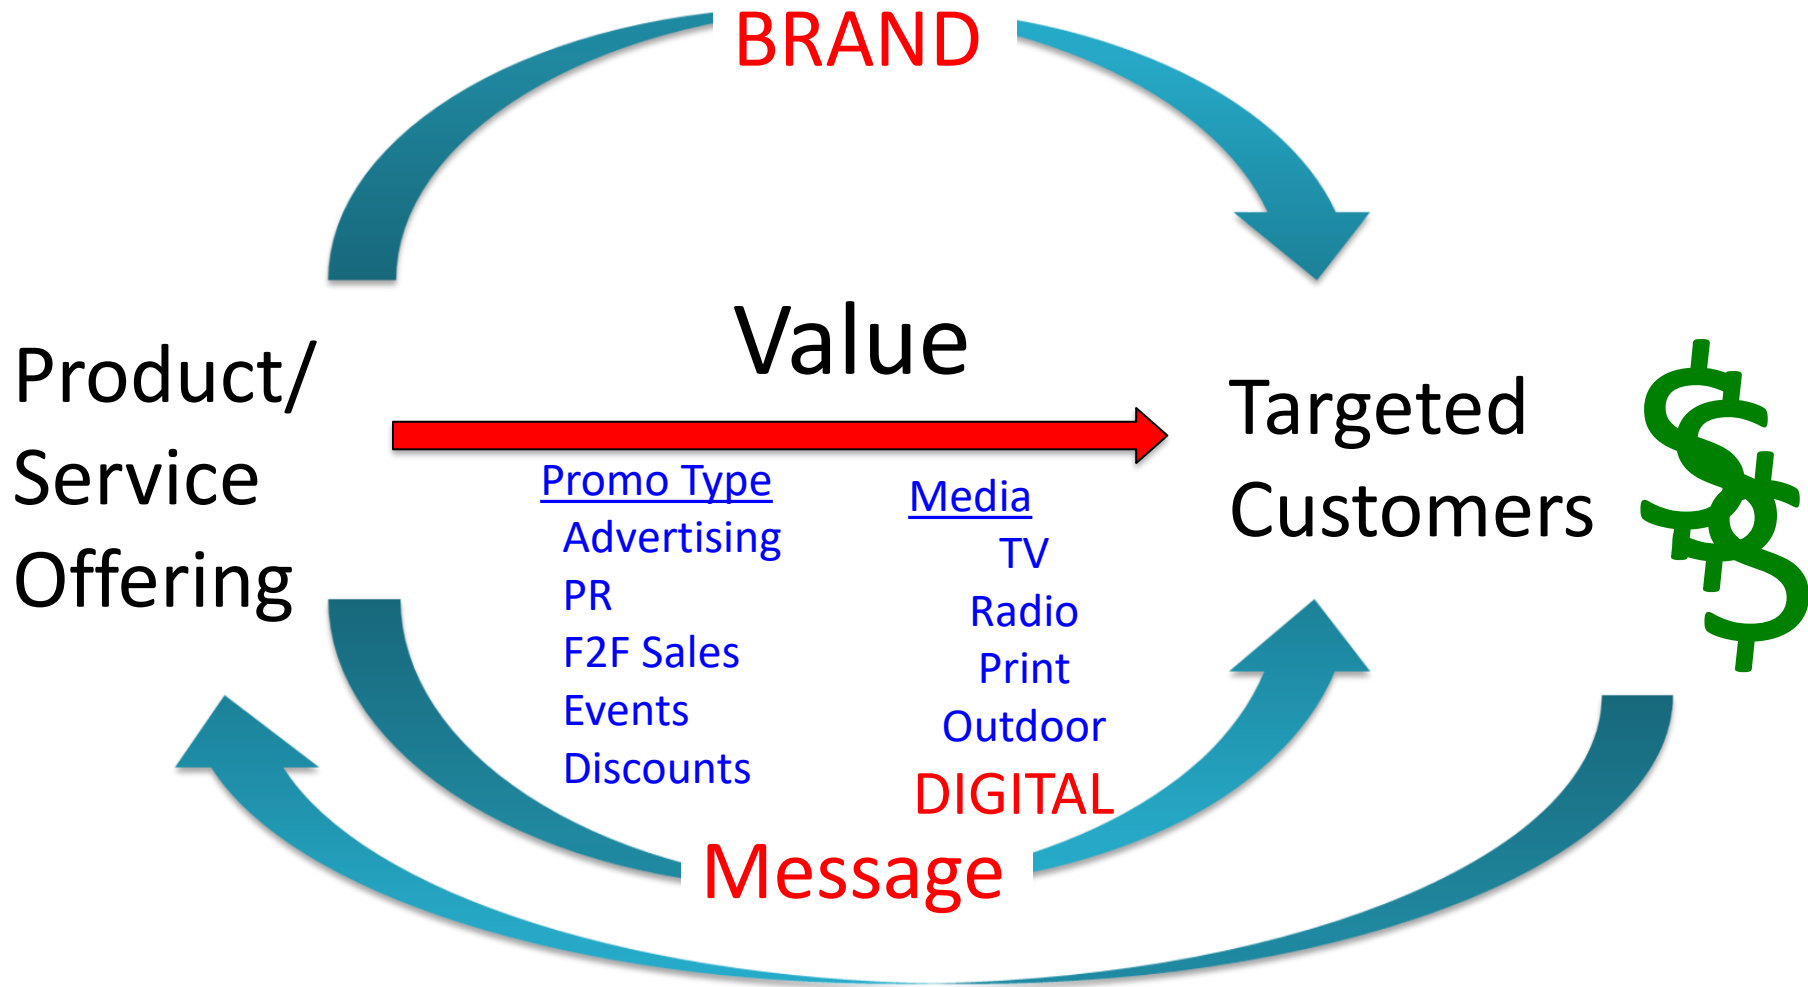

Reach people based on their purchase behaviors, device usage and other activities.

Q#3 – What Do I Want from My Website?

Q#3 – What Do I Want from My Website?

Visits! – and then

- CTAs that lead to Conversions
- Conversions
 - Sales
 - Emails
 - Donations
 - Links
 - Enquiries
- Repeat visitors

However – Remember the Goldfish?

On the average web page, users will read at most of the words during an average visit; 20% is more likely.

28%

The average page visit lasts less than a minute and users often leave web pages in just

10-20 SECONDS

Looking Up In Downturns

What happened to marketers and media during the Great Depression and the deep recessions of the 1970s and '80s?

Dear BEN CHESTNUT,

The most in-depth and eye-opening study ever conducted of marketing and media innovation during times of economic crisis — Downtime Opportunity — is now available. Surprisingly, amidst the layoffs, closings and cutbacks, great innovation has occurred during the toughest times. This Advertising Age White Paper makes for compelling reading — order your copy now.

This brilliant study, conducted by Bradley Johnson, resulted in a 16,000-word Ad Age White Paper. In it, Johnson relays hundreds of recession-time case studies in successful marketing and product innovation across the sectors:

- Automotive
- Financial Services
- Consumer Products & Retail
- Technology
- Media
- Ad Agencies

Example - Email marketing?

Dear Don,

I really enjoyed being a part of the webinar this past week with Adrean Turner of the TriCounty Community Network (TCN). I wanted to send along some information that relates to the discussion we had, Marketing for Nonprofits in the Digital Age. As you learned, attracting your audience and focusing your efforts on the web starts with a strong plan.

I hope you found the information useful. We are constantly working to improve and update the educational material we provide.

Can you take a moment to let me know what you thought?

Q#6 What Social Media sites should I use?

How Social Media Marketing Can Make an Impact on Your Business

ON TOP VISIBILITY

It Builds Relationships with Consumers and Your Business

Social media allows your business to interact with your customers and also allows them to see beyond your regular business activities. It is also a great way to leverage your presence and let your customers know about any charity or community efforts your business is involved in and possibly invite people to get involved.

It Drives Traffic to Your Website

Engaging and well-placed social media posts can direct traffic to your website. Instead of waiting for visitors to stumble upon your website to find out about your business or any sales or promotions you may be running – through social media posts, you can send them directly there!

It Supports Your Brand Image

A strong social media presence can build brand loyalty because when you are engaging and interacting on social media your business becomes much more familiar and personalized. Statistics prove (there's those stats again) that brands or businesses with active social media profiles have more loyal customers.

It Keeps Your Business Ahead of the Competition

If your business is active and engaging on a variety of social networks, you will gain friends and followers first, before your competition. Keep in mind that businesses that thrive on social media use the most clever, attention grabbing tactics and slogans, and the most useful, link worthy content.

Q#7-What is SM marketing plan?

● Social Media Marketing Plan

1. Set Goals that solve the Biggest challenge– e.g. Brand, traffic, customer engagement
2. Research the SM site audiences
3. Establish measurement metrics
4. Research what your competition is doing
5. Build and curate compelling content
6. Engage with the audience
7. Monitor, adjust, repeat

Q#7-How do these elements of DM work together?

- Digital Marketing Plan

1. Marketing Bits – Define Customer(s) and message(s)
2. What Website design will focus on those customers and messages?
3. What Search bits that will send those customers to your website pages?
4. What CTAs and Conversions on the website pages?
5. What Email will send the target customers to your website pages?
6. Which Social site and what content that will send those customers to your website pages?
