Thought for Today

“Sometimes when you’re in a dark place you think you’ve been buried, but you’ve actually been planted.”

Christine Caine

5

You are in the right place, if...

1. You manage a small nonprofit.
2. You haven't reached your funding goals yet.
3. It has been difficult to find mission-aligned funders.
4. You are just curious.

How to Position Your Nonprofit for Grants

Grants are financial awards given to support programs, operations, or specific projects. This funding is typically provided by a foundation, a government agency, or a corporation.

How to prepare for private foundation grants:

- 1. Private Foundations are “cause” oriented.
- 2. IRS Tax Determination Letter – 501(c)(3)
- 3. Program that is underway (in progress)
- 4. Partners/Collaborators
- 5. Grant Proposal (Budget and Board List)
- 6. Website

How to Attract Corporate Sponsors

Corporate sponsorships provide valuable financial support for nonprofit organizations. Here are steps you can take to attract and secure corporate sponsorships:

1. Corporations are “Employee & Consumer” oriented.
2. They love visibility
3. Develop a concise letter of inquiry
4. Define What You Offer
5. Prepare to Pitch Your Proposal
6. Follow Up and Maintain Relationships

Here are a few things you could offer:

1. Logo Placement
2. Product or Service Displays at events
3. Content Creation
4. Employee Involvement
5. Endorsements

Common Pitfalls to Avoid

Discussing common mistakes in grant writing when using Ai.

1. The information is not infallible.
2. Content may exaggerate what you actually do.
3. Always a good idea to have others review the proposal content with you.
4. Do not rely on Ai alone. Fact check.

Final Thought

"It is not enough to be compassionate.
You must act."

Dalai Lama

- ① Dream Big
- ② Set goal
- ③ Take Action
